MESSAGE

I join the entire Christian Filipino Community in the solemn and meaningful celebration of Easter Sunday.

Throughout the challenges we confronted over the past few years, we remain strong and resilient because we hold firm to the promise of salvation as professed by Jesus Christ. The fulfillment of the Resurrection of the Lord therefore gives us hope and courage to never falter no matter how overwhelming the odds seemingly are.

May this occasion give us much reason to thank the Almighty and have faith—in each other and in the Lord—so that we may stand brave and united in our journey as a people. Let us be hopeful of better days ahead even as we continue to work hard for the brighter and more prosperous future that we aspire for ourselves and for future generations.

May you have a blessed day and mabuhay kayong lahat!
